6.0 PROCEDURE FOR THE TREATMENT OF COMPLAINTS

6.1 Step 1: Informal resolution of the problem

Any person to whom this policy applies who believes the actions of another person may constitute harassment under this policy is encouraged to inform that person that his behaviour is unwelcome, offending and that these actions go against this policy and must stop immediately.

In an effort to resolve the situation, an employee may request the help of his immediate supervisor in order to identify the best means to inform the other person to stop the offending behaviour.

If the actions persist and prior to lodging an official complaint, the person to whom this policy applies who believes that the actions of another person may constitute harassment must eitherse ies0

6.6 If asked, the principal, the centre administrator, immediate supervisor or the Director of Human Resources may help the complainant to complete the Harassment Complaint Form.

7.0 INQUIRY PROCESS

7.1 As soon as a complaint has been filed, the complainant and the respondent (person concerned in the complaint) must be convened, in writing, by the Director of Human Resources to a meeting (separately) to be informed that a complaint for harassment has been received and to determine the severity of the complaint and make a decision as to the intervention required. The notification must indicate that the complainant and the respondent may be accompanied by a person of his choice or his union representative when applicable.

7.2 If a formal inquiry is necessary, the Director of Human Resources will:

- inform the respondent in writing of the nature of the complaint and inform him of his rights;
- inform the respondent that there will be a formal inquiry;
- mandate an external, independent and impartial inquirer;
- receive the report of the inquiry that will indicate if there was or not harassment. The report must contain recommendations.

7.3 The inquirer may request the use of any resources to assist in carrying out the inquiry.

7.4 The inquiry should be completed within 30 working days of the filing of the complaint.

7.5 The inquiry will normally consist of personal interviews with the complainant and the respondent. Other persons who are aware of the incident and/or the circumstances surrounding the complaint may also be interviewed. Every person interviewed must sign a Confidentiality Agreement Form.

7.6 The inquiry will ascertain the following information:

- a) the circumstances;
- b) a description of the incident(s);
- c) past incidents or repeated behaviours;
- d) the relationship between the parties involved and the context where the alleged incidents took place;
- e) any form of consent or obvious disapproval from complainant when the incidents took place.

7.7 On the recommendation of the Director of Human Resources, the School Board may, at any time, take administrative preventive measures if there is a substantial risk of recurrence or aggravation.

7.8 The inquirer shall provide a written report to the Director of Human Resources. The report shall include the following:

- a) Whether the allegations are deemed founded;
- b) A summary of the events;
- c) Results from the investigation;
- d) Recommended corrective measures, if applicable.

7.9 If the allegations are deemed to be founded in whole or in part, the School Board shall respect the following procedure, taking into account the findings of the inquiry as far as possible:

- a) When feasible, the School Board will attempt to resolve the complaint in an informal manner, such as a meeting of the complainant and the respondent that leads to an apology or other resolution that is satisfactory to the complainant.
- b) If an informal resolution is not feasible, impractical in the circumstances, the School Board may take any measure or recourse provided for in the collective agreements, administrative bylaws and provincial and federal laws in effect. This includes a warning, a reprimand, suspension or dismissal if deemed appropriate. For a respondent who is not an employee of the School Board, the School Board may take all other means available under the law.

7.10 The Director of Human Resources must inform as soon as possible the complainant and the respondent of the findings of the inquiry.

8.0 REPRISALS

8.1 The School Board will take disciplinary measures and/or other measures against any employee and/or individual who takes reprisals against a person who filed a complaint or is involved in a

11.0 FOLLOW-UP

- 11.1 Should there be any corrective measures to implement the School Board will inform the complainant and respondent's immediate supervisor of the findings of the inquiry.
- 11.2 The School Board must pay special attention to the complainant and respondent, as well as to other person involved, notably by informing them of the services available through the Employee Assistance Program.
- 11.3 The complainant and respondent's immediate supervisor must follow up on any measures taken by the School Board pursuant to the findings of the inquiry, in particular by holding individual meetings with the complainant and respondent to ascertain that the measures implemented are respected and to enquire about the work climate and any negative feedback that could require an intervention from his part.
- 11.4 The complainant and respondent's immediate supervisor may, at any time, request the assistance of the Human Resources Department for the implementation of the measures.
