4.0 Creation of Positions – Administrative Support Staff

In response to a question from the Chairperson, the Director General explained that there is a clause in the collective agreement that allows the engagement of a temporary employee for a period not exceeding five months to perform particular work due to an increased workload or an unforeseen event. A grievance was received from the union about a temporary position in Human Resources that was handling a particular dossier and when re-examined it was determined that a full-time position needed to be created due to the workload. There is funding within the Human Resources budget. The second position is required due to increasing enrolment and the engagement of 426 new employees due to the new measures.

The Director of Human Resources noted that in order to increase efficiency within the department these positions are necessary given that an increase of engagement of new employees due to the measures has created in the neighbourhood of 1,500 new tasks that need to be completed in addition to over 400 additional employees.
